New Party Will Be Formed, Says La Follette Man

Jack Richards Slams Old Parties in Torrance Address

Predicting the formation of a new Progressive party in the United States after election and the defeat of Coolidge next Tuesday, Jack Richards, formerly of Madison, Wis., and now of Hollywood, a lifelong friend of Robert M. La Follette, addressed a meeting at Moose hall here last night. Mr. Richards asserted that in case of the deadlock La Follette and his group in the Senate would not vote for Bryan, but would endeavor to maintain a deadlock in the upper branch of Congress and force the Supreme Court to rule another general election necessary. The speaker charged both old parties with corruption and "pandering to special privilege."

Catholic Ladies Guests at Pretty Hallow'en Party

"Watch your step as I watch mine. You've only one life; I have nine."

Said the big black cat on the piano. Other big black cats chased each other around the electric light in the dining room, while witches, bats, owls and black cats peered at one from the walls, at the party given last Monday night by Mrs. Harry McManis to the ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic church at her home, 1904 Andreo avenue.

The Hallow'en colors were carried out everywhere possible. The windows were curtained with ribbons of yellow paper with witches riding broomsticks on every streamer. Above the electric lights were rosettes of black and yellow from which radiated streamers of black and yellow to all parts of the ceiling, completely covering it, both in the living room and dining room. The lights were covered with yellow paper.

The guests, who came in all manner of costumes, as it was a masquerade, passed the evening in playing Five Hundred. The prizes fell to Mrs. T. B. Dobbs, Mrs. Barbara McMasters and Mrs. T. J. Foley. On the card tables were small black and yellow baskets holding black and yellow tandleries. The refreshments also carried out these colors. The plate and dessert doliies were edged with ruffles of black and yellow; the napkins were yellow, decorated with owls and moons.

Refreshments of Italian delight and hot rolls, orange ice in black and yellow cups and French pastry were served by Miss Jeanette Probert and Miss Celina McNeal, who wore black and yellow dresses and black and yellow aprons decorated with owls, cats and witches. The favors were pegs, "tictacs" and whistles dressed in yellow paper.

'CAPTAIN BLOOD' IS COMING HERE

Scenes from CAPTAIN BLOOD

By RAFAEL SABATINI

Vitagraph affords the screen another swashbuckling, roaring picture of piracy, intrigue and romance with its adaptation of Rafael Sabatini's "Captain Blood." The story is replete with likely incidents developed in spectacular fashion.

Teeming with adventure and sizzling with action, this companion piece to "The Sea Hawk" is a fine contribution to the list of bigger, and better pictures. Stirring scene crowds exciting spectacle before your eyes in such rapid-fire order that you are swept along with unabated interest.

The story deals with an English physician transported to the Barbadoes for giving medical aid to a rebel. His bearing attracts the notice of Arabella Bishop, niece of Col. Bishop, governor of the island, and she prevails upon her uncle to buy him as a slave. Increased at the treatment accorded the prisoners on the island, an escape is plotted and successfully carried through when they overpower the crew of a Spanish galleon and take possession of the ship. Capt. Blood leads the pirate crew.

The lawless crew battle their way through numerous exciting incidents and are finally successful in saving the governor-general of Jamaica. In recognition of his service Capt. Blood is restored to favor and replaces Col. Bishop as governor of the island. J. Warren Kerrigan, as "Captain Blood," gives a convincing portrayal, while Jean Paige lends charming support in the role of Arabella.

"Captain Blood" will be shown at the Torrance theatre Sunday and Monday.

THRIFT OR FOOLISHNESS

A foolish man spends his money and then tells all his friends about it. The Thrifty man saves his money and then his friends tell the world about it. The moral is, he who saves will have plenty of laughs for the last.

Fistiana Fans Will Cheer For Cyrus Tonight

Torrance Lad Meets Pedro Villa in Compton Squared Circle

Torrance boxing fans will migrate to Compton in numbers tonight to cheer on Chief Cyrus, the Indian brawler of this city, who meets Pedro Villa in half of the main event of the American Legion boxing arena's show in the Midway city. Every Oil city fan is strong for the willing Indian slugger and will back him to stop the Filipino boxer tonight.

Cyrus is in the best of shape for the bout and ready to step through four fast rounds. He is confident of victory and rarin' to go. Villa is a tough one to handle and hopes to convince Cyrus that he needs a lot more experience. Cyrus laughs at this and says he will scalp the boy from the islands.

The balance of the card will be: "Red" Williams vs. Ted Frenchie in the other half of the main tangle; Bud Ridley vs. Bernie Olson at 118 pounds; Angelo Payo vs. Mickey White, and Battling Chico vs. Pewee Nolan.

The American Legion jazz hounds will render select music between rounds.

Oilers Clash With Redondo Crowd Sunday

C.-C. M. O. and Beach Teams Are Expected to Play Close Game

The C.-C. M. O.-Redondo game Sunday at the new C.-C. M. O. hall park on Redondo boulevard, between Torrance and Redondo, promises to be a close-score affair, as both teams are evenly matched and as both are hot after the A. A. League pennant a good game can be expected. Manager Copeland of the Oil team is an old hand at the game and has his boys going good. His idea that the old ball game is never over until the last man is out in the ninth is clearly shown by the way the oilers play even with a three or four run handicap. The game will be called promptly at 2 p. m.

SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Etta Flagg of the home economics department inspected our cooking and sewing classes on Wednesday and pronounced the equipment and work of the highest type.

Dr. Gagesby of the school health department spent Wednesday here making health examination of new children in the school.

Miss Ailsie E. Goodrick, assistant supervisor of music, visited the school on Wednesday and gave special lessons in music in each room.

A new steel unit of playground apparatus especially built for the very little children was installed at the south end of the building this week.

A new driveway and sidewalk in front of the building have been completed by cement workers this week.

News from Mrs. Helen C. Berry, absent from the faculty on account of illness, is very encouraging. It is hoped that Mrs. Berry can resume her classroom work soon after Thanksgiving.

Love Peacemaker Has 20 Dont's For Matrimonially Inclined

Judge Thomas F. Graham of San Francisco, famous in the West as "the great reconciler" because of his great success over many years in divorce courts in bringing together estranged couples, has just issued 10 "beware's" for prospective brides and 10 "beware's" for would-be bridegrooms. Two of them are given above.

PREPARED

A man carrying a small hand-bag such as "drummers" use entered a barber's shop and proceeded to take the various things out of the bag. "I don't want anything today," said the barber. "The other showed him a bottle. 'This is very fine bay rum,' he said. 'Possibly,' said the barber, 'but I've got plenty.' 'Shaving soap?' said the other, producing a packet. 'No, thanks,' replied the barber. 'Face powder?' said the caller, producing another packet. 'No; it's no good,' said the knight of the scissors. "I must get rid of my present stock first." Apparently undaunted, the caller produced other things—a bottle of hair tonic, a pot of pomade, a tube of face cream, and so on. "No, no," said the barber, desperately. "I tell you I don't want any of them!" "I know you don't," was the calm reply. "Then why do you ask me to buy them?" demanded the barber. "I didn't ask you to buy them," said the other. "I only came in to get my hair cut, but I wanted to show you before you requested that I've got all the toilet requisites I want."

Home of the PIED PIPER HEALTH SHOES

Endorsed by the National Physical Board of the Young Women's Christian Association

Many kinds of shoes are made to look like these, but parents shouldn't be misled. (Be sure to look for the Pied Piper trademark on each shoe.) The wrong kind of shoes often make children the victims of lifelong sufferings. No shoes can be made as comfortable as Pied Pipers, for none contain their patented health construction. So guard the future development of your children with these shoes. They protect the delicate bones of the feet and correctly support all the tender muscles. Pied Piper Health Shoes promote 100% foot comfort.

What Every Mother and Father Should Know:

In one school alone a committee of doctors upon investigation made these startling disclosures: 125 children wore faulty shoes; 120 had weak feet; 74 had slow feet; 90 had corns, bunions and callouses; only 7 had excellent feet.

All of the above distortions and foot deficiencies will never occur in the feet of YOUR children if you come to this store and have them fitted with Pied Piper Health Shoes. It is a parental duty to insist upon Pied Pipers.
